ISSUE

I. Tax Administration—Penalty.

Authority: IC § 6-8.1-10-2.1; 45 IAC 15-11-2.

Taxpayer protests the imposition of penalty.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Taxpayer is a partnership with Indiana partners. The Indiana Department of Revenue ("Department") determined that Taxpayer had not filed an Indiana adjusted gross income tax return for 2010 and so imposed penalty. Taxpayer protested the imposition of the penalty. An administrative hearing was held and this Letter of Findings results. Further facts will be supplied as required.

I. Tax Administration—Penalty.

DISCUSSION

Taxpayer protests the imposition of a penalty for 2010. The Department imposed a $250 penalty for failure to file a 2010 Indiana income tax return. Taxpayer protests that it was unaware of the requirement to file a return and that Indiana did get the income tax in question via the individual shareholders' returns. Taxpayer also explained that, now that it is aware of the requirement to file a return, it will file the proper return on an ongoing basis.

The Department refers to IC § 6-8.1-10-2.1(g), which states:

A person who fails to file a return for a listed tax that shows no tax liability for a taxable year, other than an information return (as defined in section 6 of this chapter), on or before the due date of the return shall pay a penalty of ten dollars ($10) for each day that the return is past due, up to a maximum of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

IC § 6-8.1-10-2.1(d), which states:

(d) If a person subject to the penalty imposed under this section can show that the failure to file a return, pay the full amount of tax shown on the person's return, timely remit tax held in trust, or pay the deficiency determined by the department was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, the department shall waive the penalty.
(Emphasis added).

Next, the Department refers to 45 IAC 15-11-2(b), which states:

Negligence, on behalf of a taxpayer is defined as the failure to use such reasonable care, caution, or diligence as would be expected of an ordinary reasonable taxpayer. Negligence would result from a taxpayer's carelessness, thoughtlessness, disregard or inattention to duties placed upon the taxpayer by the Indiana Code or department regulations. Ignorance of the listed tax laws, rules and/or regulations is treated as negligence. Further, failure to read and follow instructions provided by the department is treated as negligence. Negligence shall be determined on a case by case basis according to the facts and circumstances of each taxpayer.
(Emphasis added).

Finally, 45 IAC 15-11-2\(c\) provides in pertinent part:

The department shall waive the negligence penalty imposed under IC 6-8.1-10-1 if the taxpayer affirmatively establishes that the failure to file a return, pay the full amount of tax due, timely remit tax held in trust, or pay a deficiency was due to reasonable cause and not due to negligence. In order to establish reasonable cause, the taxpayer must demonstrate that it exercised ordinary business care and prudence in carrying out or failing to carry out a duty giving rise to the penalty imposed under this section. . . .
(Emphasis added).

In this case, the Department determined that Taxpayer did not file an Indiana adjusted gross income tax return for 2010. The Department imposed penalty under IC § 6-8.1-10-2.1(g). As a result of the protest process, Taxpayer has affirmatively established that it acted reasonably, as required by IC § 6-8.1-10-2.1(d) and 45 IAC 15-11-2\(b\). The $250 penalty for 2010 will be waived. However, the Department takes this opportunity to notify Taxpayer that since it is now aware of its filing duties, such a waiver may not be warranted for other years.

FINDING

Taxpayers' protest is sustained.
